by Jacek Borcuch

Friday, Nov 17, 2017, from 7 pm

Screening starts at 7:30 pm

The Polish Film Club Kino OKO presents the movie All That I Love / Wszystko co kocham directed by Jacek Borcuch. Set in the early 1980s Poland, it's a story of young punk musician Jacek whose songs run against censorship amid turmoil of the Solidarity times, with Jacek and his love Basia caught between their parents on the different sides of the political divide. The film screened at the 2010 Sundance FF and was Poland's entry to 2011 Oscars. Introduced by Dr. Justyna Budzik.
